On to the Bush Mill Pioneer Settlement and Narrow Gauge Steam Railway complex where a working blacksmith and many displays bring back the forgotten era of the early Tasmanian Timber Cutters. Ride the steam train to the Fox and Hounds Station. Take a guided tour of Port Arthur penal settlement - one of Australia's most significant historic sites - though the solitary confinement cell, Church and Hospital, all now in ruins and the fully restored administrators' cottages. The tour provides an enthralling insight into the hardships endured by the convicts.
