About Propel SCI Peer Coaching Tasmania

- We collaborate with and support individuals with a spinal cord injury and their families to achieve greater independence, increase resilience, and build capacity for the future
- Through lived experience and training, Peer Coaches will undertake this through the knowledge areas of:
 - Independent living (modifications, equipment/aids, transitional supports, technological applications, transport)
 - Health (pain management, wound and skin care management, access to preventative health care)
 - Leisure and wellbeing (exercise, rehabilitation supports, social and community connections, wheelchair sport, nutrition, travel and accommodation, financial subsidies)
 - Family and parenting (relationship counselling, making sense of trauma)
 - Education and employment (including upskilling and volunteering options)
 - Information and resources (including NDIS navigation, self-managed plans, trusted third party community providers)
 - Advocacy and support in resolving concerns
- We build capacity through providing empathetic and qualified coaching support in:
 - Decision making through informed choices
 - Planning and goal setting
 - Self-reflection and review
- Propel SCI Peer Coaching Tasmania is funded by the National Disability Agency
